Ivis is a Senior Associate of the BLP office in Tegucigalpa, Honduras. His specialties include the practices of Agribusiness, Banking & Finance, Business Law and Global Mobility & Relocation.

Throughout his years of experience, he has advised national financial entities as a lawyer within the Department of Legal Advice for Banco de Desarrollo Rural Honduras, S.A.; helped other institutions to obtain financing through projects with foreign finance companies, and advised such finance companies on regulations within Honduran territory.

He has extensive experience in distribution, representation, and agency issues, serving as an advisor to the largest distributors in the country, such as Unilever de Centroamerica S.A. where he served as an in-house lawyer.

He has also been a counselor to companies dedicated to the manufacture and marketing of veterinary medical products, veterinary foods, pesticides, and fertilizers, helping them achieve the effective marketing of these products in Honduras.

He joined the BLP team as an Associate in 2017, after having served as legal advisor to the Rural Development Bank of Honduras S.A., and previously, at the Urquía Rodríguez Law Firm.
