Fredy is an Associate at the BLP office in Tegucigalpa, Honduras. His specialty practice areas include Environment, Health & Safety, Energy & Infrastructure, and Aviation & Maritime. In the first two areas, he advises national and international companies on compliance with provisions required by Honduran legislation to obtain permits and Environmental Licenses for infrastructure projects. In Aviation & Maritime, he counsels different air transport companies on how to comply with the Regulation that establishes the Honduran Agency of Civil Aeronautics (AHAC) so that they can perform efficiently under the law, obtaining the greatest convenience for users of different airlines.

He joined the BLP team as an Associate in 2018, after having been a legal advisor to the Flores-Bonilla Law Firm and the SEA Empresarial Law Firm.
