Delmer is a BLP Associate in the El Salvador office. He specializes in the practice areas of Tax and Business Law.

In his Tax practice, he advises national and transnational companies on the application, payment, and management of taxes in El Salvador, and guides companies in tax administrative procedures and audits. Being a great connoisseur of the applicable tax incentives, he counsels clients on the best tax structure for establishing their business within the country.

In Business Law, he has advised national and international companies in the elaboration of distribution contracts, mergers and acquisitions processes, corporate structuring, and financing, among others. He is also an advisor on civil and commercial contracts.

He joined the BLP team as an associate in 2019. Prior to joining the firm, he was an auxiliary adjudicator in the Third Civil and Commercial Court and legal advisor at CPA Auditores.
